PRF Platelet Rich Fibrin

PRF stands for ‘Platelet Rich Fibrin’ and is a natural way to help improve a number of conditions, including your skin's texture, thickness and radiance. This is the newest modification to the use of PRP or platelet rich plasma. PRF is different in that it uses no added anticoagulants, which PRP requires to prevent the plasma from clotting. PRF is therefore the most natural process available, as there are no added compounds, just your own fibrin. |
